

Data Privacy Principles

Telco is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of personal information about its employees, customers, business partners and other identifiable individuals. This policy letter sets forth the general principles that underlie Telco Antennas specific practices for collecting, using, disclosing, storing and accessing, transferring or otherwise processing personal information.

The general principles are:

Fairness: Telco Antennas will collect and process personal information fairly and lawfully.

Purpose: Telco Antennas will collect only personal information that is relevant to and necessary for a particular purpose(s) and process personal information in a manner that is not incompatible with the purpose(s) for which it is collected.

Accuracy: Telco Antennas will keep personal information accurate, complete and up-to-date as is necessary for the purpose for which it is processed.

Disclosure: Telco Antennas will make personal information available inside or outside Telco Antennas only in appropriate circumstances.

Security: Telco Antennas will implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to safeguard personal information and instruct third parties processing personal information on behalf of Telco Antennas, if any, to process it only in a manner that is consistent with processing it on Telco Antennas behalf, and to implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to safeguard the personal information.

Access: Telco Antennas will provide individuals with appropriate access to personal information about them.
